

CLASS

THE BUYERS of cars costing over $1,000 are demanding more and more of what is commonly called "class." As a prospective buyer you've got to recognize this fact.

That the LEXINGTON Minute Man Six HAS CLASS.

The open touring model shows it, and the convertible model emphasizes it. Any body can see it—except perhaps a dealer who is fighting a losing fight for a car whose makers have become set in their ways.

The makers of the LEXINGTON Minute Man Six are as close to the sources of motor car style as any men can be.

Touring Car $1.185
Convertible Sedan $1,350

In the LEXINGTON Minute Man Six, class is combined with a price that is not prohibitive to the average car buyer.

And don't forget that the Moore Multiple Exhaust System is more than a theoretical talking point. For it has absolutely been proved, that the Moore Multiple Exhaust System not only increases the horse power 22.8 per cent, but does it on less fuel. Some Car!

turned the pigskin one-third that distance. Warner hit the line but was thrown without gain. Cooper forward passed the ball twenty yards to Lewis, but the referee ruled that the play was illegal because of the fact that another Clarksburg player had touched the ball before Lewis caught it. The pigskin was brought back. Erwin went through tackle for two yards. Cooper punted thirty-two yards to Shroyer, who was downed in his tracks by Lewis. Lorenz went through the line for a two-yard gain. Bump bumped through the line for nine yards. The same player went through left tackle for six yards on the next play. The Buckhannon boys were marching down the field fast. Lorenz tore through the line for three yards. Shroyer made first down. Bump bumped fifteen yards off tackle. Shroyer gained one yard through center. Lorenz pierced left tackle for two yards. Shroyer tried right tackle and got three yards. The heavy Buckhannon boys were playing the Clarksburg boys off their feet and a touchdown seemed imminent, but the timer's whistle ended the quarter with the ball on Clarksburg's twenty-yard line. It was Buckhannon's down, with three yards to go.

Second Quarter.
Bump hit the left side of the line for a five-yard gain and first down. Lorenz circled the right end for two yards. Bump bumped through left tackle for six yards. Buckhannon was penalized fifteen yards for rough tactics. Bump failed to bump when a short run off right tackle. right guard for four and a half yards. Bump got bumped on the next play and was thrown for no gain. Shroyer kicked thirty yards to Cooper, who fumbled, and H. Rohrbaugh, of Buckhannon, recovered it. Buckhannon had the ball in the center of the field. Ross gained only one yard on an end run. An attempted forward pass was incomplete. Another play of this kind, Ross to Lorenz, netted the Buckhannon team a three-yard gain. Shroyer kicked twenty-five yards. It was Clarksburg's ball on its own eleven-yard line. Warner gained four yards off left tackle. Harrison went through the line for two more. Cooper burst through center for three yards. With only one yard to gain on the fourth down, the Clarksburg team elected to kick, and Cooper booted the pigskin thirty-five yards to Ross, who returned it fifteen yards before he was downed by Cooper. The ball was on Clarksburg's twenty-yard line. Just to show the crowd that he still had a few bumps left in him, despite the fact that he had done most of Buckhannon's work, Bump bumped the line for one yard as the whistle blew, ending the quarter with the ball on Clarksburg's nineteen-yard line.

Fourth Quarter.

On a forward pass, Ross to J. Rohrbaugh, Buckhannon lost one yard. Ross fumbled the ball and Martz recovered. Another forward pass, Martz to J. Rohrbaugh, was incomplete on the fourth down. Shroyer punted the ball over the local's goal line and J. Rohrbaugh recovered it after one of the local players dropped the ball, scoring a touchdown for Buckhannon, but fortunately it counted for naught, as touchdowns do not count anything in the score column. It was Clarksburg's ball on the twenty-yard line. Erwin gained two yards through the line. Cooper made a neat run around right end for five yards. Harrison gained a yard on a line plunge. Erwin hit the line for a five-yard gain and first down. Harrison gained two yards on an off tackle line plunge. A forward pass, Cooper to Warner, was broken up by the speedy Buckhannon backs. A second forward pass, Cooper to Erwin, failed. Cooper punted thirty-five yards to Ross who returned the ball ten yards, but fumbled it when tackled. J. Rohrbaugh recovered the ball. A neatly executed forward pass, Martz to Lorenz, netted the Uphur county boys twelve yards, but it was a costly gain, as Lorenz, one of the best players on the Buckhannon team, was injured in the play and had to leave the game. Carper, replaced Bump to Shroyer, several of Buckhannon's line men were off side and Buckhannon was penalized five yards. Ross circled the left end for a five-yard gain. Bump tore through the center of the line for a seven-yard gain. Carper failed to gain on a line plunge. The Hon. Mr. Bump was then called upon to make the necessary gain for the first down, but failed. Clarksburg's ball. On the first play Cooper punted forty-five yards to Ross, who returned the ball ten yards. Carper hit the left side of the line for a small gain. On a forward pass, Ross to Bump, Warner bumped Mr. Bump on the ground for a five-yard loss. Before the Buckhannon boys could line up again the referee's whistle ended the game with the ball in the middle of the field. Line up and summary:

BROWN WINS

Game From Williams in the Last Two Quarters of Play.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Oct. 21.—Brown defeated Williams 29 to 0 today after the purple had held the visitors scoreless for two periods. Brown fumbled when the ball was near the Williams' goal, probably prevented scoring in the early part of the contest.

Shortly after the third period opened Conroy carried the ball around the Williams' right end for the first touchdown.

In the fourth period Hillhouse blocked O'Brien's punt on the home team's two yard line and Purdy carried it over for the second touchdown. A little later Pollard added another touchdown after a spectacular thirty yard run. Score by periods:

ant that it must be practiced daily. When a player goes wrong in his tackling his usefulness is at an end. Old schemes have been hit on to enforce importance. One coach had a player spend two afternoons alone tackling the dummy. He was under orders to keep it up until he could tackle. Ever afterward he tackled.

Catching Punts Important.
Catching punts is so important, many games being lost by fumbles, that it should be practiced daily and just before each game. The kicking and catching practice before the start of each game is simply to find out if the backs are handling punts satisfactorily—those who do catch them on that particular day.

There are two ways of catching a punt. One is to take it as a ball play or catches a baseball. Put the arms out, catch it on the hands and lead it, without stop, into the stomach. The other is to take it on the body and pin it fast thereto with the hands.
